OLIVE LEAF YIELDS & FLAVOURFUL ORIGIN

Olyfo is a company dedicated to the art of producing and distributing the finest bottled and bulk extra virgin olive oil. We take pride in our heritage, combining centuries of tradition with modern techniques to craft olive oil that embodies the richness of Tunisia's land.

Our process begins in the sun-soaked groves of Tunisia, where we handpick only the best olives. Every olive is carefully selected, and through state-of-the-art, eco-friendly technology, we extract its pure, golden juice—ensuring that what reaches your table is nothing short of extraordinary. This is not just olive oil; it's the essence of flavor, health, and craftsmanship, designed to elevate your culinary experiences with every drop.

At Olyfo, we are more than just producers. We are the olive leaf yields and flavor origins that shape every bottle, every batch. Proudly, we bring you Al Atika, IFRIQIA, and 2500 Years of Tradition—brands that represent the perfect marriage of history and innovation, offering a taste of Tunisia's unparalleled terroir.
